

minimise your risk

DRUGS AND ALCOHOL AWARENESS
Duration: 3 hours	Location: At your premises or suitable nearby training room	Max. number of delegates: 15
Aims (purpose)	To improve drivers' knowledge and understanding of the organisation's alcohol and drugs policy. To explain the effects of alcohol and drugs (including prescribed, over-the-counter and illegal drugs) on their driving capabilities To help companies comply with their legal requirements under the Management of Health & Safety at Work Regulations 1999 to carry out risk assessments and implement controls concerning 'reasonably foreseeable' risks, including training of employees
Objectives (Intended outcomes)	On completion of training delegates should demonstrate:- <ul style="list-style-type: none">• An understanding of the effects of alcohol and drugs on the body and driving capabilities• How to measure the alcohol content of drinks and how long the alcohol takes to be processed.• An understanding of the workings and processes of the organisation's alcohol and drugs policy, including testing methods. This is documented through questionnaires, tests of knowledge and signed training records
Who is the training intended for?	Vocational licence holders – PCV and LGV drivers Company fleet car and van drivers Anyone who drives 'on company business'
Benefits to clients	Enables clients to implement effective road risk polices within their organisation and meet the legal requirements expected of them
Preparatory work	None
Additional Information	Course accredited by 'Go-Skills' (2005) This session is designed to be interesting, informative and fun!	