

minimise your risk

MANUAL HANDLING FOR COACH DRIVERS
Duration: 3 hours	Location: At your premises or suitable nearby training room	Max. number of delegates: 15
Aims (purpose)	To provide an understanding of the effects of manual handling on the body. To help companies comply with their legal requirements under the Management of Health & Safety at Work Regulations 1999 to carry out risk assessments and implement controls concerning 'reasonably foreseeable' risks, including training of employees
Objectives (Intended outcomes)	On completion of training delegates should demonstrate:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• An understanding of the effects of alcohol and drugs</li><li>• An understanding of the organisation's policies on the use of alcohol and drugs</li><li>• An understanding of the workings and processes of the organisation's alcohol and drugs policy, including testing methods.</li></ul> This is documented through questionnaires, tests of knowledge and signed training records
Who is the training intended for?	Vocational licence holders – PCV and LGV drivers
Benefits to clients	Enables clients to implement effective manual handling within their organisation and meet the legal requirements expected of them
Preparatory work	None
Additional Information	Course accredited by 'Go-Skills' ( 2005)	